Dear Counsel,

Unless the court directs JAMS otherwise we will abide by the court order which at present is not to compel arbitration.

Thank you,

Cynthia

Cynthia –

Uber is appealing the Court's Order denying the motion to compel arbitration. We filed our notice of appeal yesterday. We would therefore ask that JAMS proceed to treat our filed arbitration as appropriate in light of that appeal.

Thank you,

Hamish

Dear Counsel,

Since JAMS has received the court order denying the motion to compel arbitration, we will comply with the court order. It is our understanding the matter is not to proceed in arbitration.

Thank you,

Cynthia

Subject: RE: Uber v. Waymo, JAMS Case No. 1110020715

Dear Ms. Victory,

I write this email on behalf of Waymo LLC (the respondent in JAMS Arbitration No. 1110020715) and in response to your email of April 21, 2017. In your email of April 21, 2017, you wrote that JAMS (i) had reviewed Waymo's objections to JAMS jurisdiction over the subject arbitration matter, (ii) was aware that Judge Alsup would be hearing a motion related to that jurisdiction on April 27, 2017, and (iii) requested the parties to advise JAMS regarding the outcome of Judge Alsup's ruling.

Judge Alsup has since ruled. Specifically, he denied the motion to compel arbitration filed by the defendants in that case (who are also the named claimants in the subject arbitration matter). I have attached a copy of that order for your reference.

Thank you,
Jay Neukom
Counsel for Waymo LLC

Dear Counsel,

JAMS has reviewed the objection and understands the matter of jurisdiction is being heard on April 27, 2017. Please advise the outcome upon finding out the ruling.

Thank you,

Cynthia

Dear Ms. Victory,

Apologies for any confusion. Claimants' counsel was copied on my original email using their team email alias—e.g., UberWaymo@mofo.com. Claimant's counsel previously asked us to use that particular address for email service of documents. I'm copying Mr. Gonzalez individually on this email to confirm.

Best Regards,

Dear JAMS,

Please see attached Respondent Waymo LLC's Objection to JAMS Jurisdiction in the above-referenced matter. Waymo makes this submission without waiving – and without prejudice to – its objection to the jurisdiction of this tribunal over the issues raised by Claimants' improperly-filed arbitration demand.

Counsel of record in the pending Northern District of California litigation are carbon-copied on this email.
